At ALA Conference Next Week, Orion and World Software Corporation Announces Worldox License and Integration Module Discounts for Orion Customers

ATLANTA, GA and GLEN ROCK, NJ – MAY 20, 2011 — Next week at the ALA 2011 Annual

Conference in Orlando, Florida, financial and practice management software provider Orion Law Management Systems, Inc., and World Software Corporation®, makers of the award-winning Worldox®

Document Management System (DMS), announce a promotion to benefit Orion prospects and customers. Law firms interested in purchasing both Orion and Worldox will receive a discount on Worldox licenses and the Orion Worldox Integration Module for the rest of 2011. Attendees of the ALA Conference are encouraged to visit the Worldox and Orion booths to hear details on these new discounts. Worldox is at booths #722/724 and Orion is just across the aisle at booth #723.

With this discount, Orion and Worldox further strengthen their alliance. Orion's Worldox Integration Module creates a seamless integrated solution that allows users to launch, view and search for Worldox profiled documents within Orion.

Orion's President Paul Yelton notes, "Law firms cannot stay competitive without comprehensive practice and document management technology to help them organize and process client data. We are excited to offer this incentive to Orion's customers so they can experience the combined power of our technology integrated with Worldox's."

Ray Zwiefelhofer, President, World Software Corporation, adds, “The relationship between Worldox and Orion continues to flourish and we are glad to offer incentives so Orion customers can more affordably enjoy the Worldox solution. Integrations like the one Worldox has with Orion are extremely important to maximize the firm’s productivity and enhance their workflow.
