Orion Moves to Larger Quarters

Financial and Practice Management Software Company outgrows former facilities.

Atlanta, GA – November 23, 2005 – Orion Law Management Systems, Inc. today announced the company has moved its headquarters to new and larger office space. The company purchased the building to accommodate its increased staff and allow for continued growth.

The new location, at 1827 Powers Ferry Rd. SE in Atlanta, GA, is twice the size of the former facility. “We’ve grown significantly in the past year,” said Paul G. Yelton, President of Orion Law Management Systems, Inc. “The new facility is not only more comfortable, it assures we will be able to continue delivering the high quality products and services our clients have come to expect.”
