

AR Collection Manager Module

Dramatically increase cash flow and decrease collection time and cost!

Effectively managing accounts receivable (AR) is crucial for maintaining the financial health of a law firm. Firms need to easily identify "at risk" clients and invoices, which are reaching the point of diminishing returns in a systematic, efficient, user-friendly way. Orion's AR Collection Manager does just that.

AR Collection Manager

Orion's AR Collection Manager dramatically streamlines collection efforts by providing both the billing attorney and accounting staff or collection manager with an instant, updated snapshot of open invoices, steps taken to collect on those invoices, when payment is expected (and how much is expected) and instructions pertaining to "doubtful" debtors. When dealing with online e-billing companies, Orion's AR Collection Manager even offers a solution when needing to track which invoices are being appealed, the date the appeal was filed and the amount in question. Law firms can increase their bottom-line by initiating, tracking and viewing collection efforts such as emails, notes about phone calls or follow-up reminders. All efforts are then linked to the invoice itself for complete collections management.

Simple, user-friendly interface provides attorneys and accounting managers with accurate, real-time information about unpaid invoices.

"We recently installed Orion's AR Collection Manager at our firm and it has already saved us a lot of time. Our entire collection ledger is now maintained and updated electronically, and everyone at the firm can view collections status in realtime. We especially like that the Collection Manager can generate collections notices in either email or letter format, and that we can efficiently mark write-offs in the system. For anyone that currently uses a handwritten Collection ledger, Orion's system is a tremendous timesaver that keeps excellent track of what actions have been taken on collection, for the benefit of everyone at the firm."
